

STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS 2023

Come one, come all, to witness the most astounding athletes in the most incredible sport at this year's North & South Carolina Trampoline & Tumbling State Championships!

After a full season of training and preparation, nearly two hundred athletes from across the Carolinas are coming together to put their skills to the test and compete for the title of state champion. Those that do well at this event will go on to regional, national, international, and even potentially Olympic acclaim. This year's competition will feature athletes of all ages from levels one to ten in the sport of T&T, as well as many TEAM USA professionals including national and international champions!

Spectator Tickets will be $15 per day; Children $10 per day.
Tickets are CASH ONLY at the Front Door
